

Council Comments.....

The deadline for articles for this week's Beacon was 5:00 p.m. Tuesday. While the Council meeting did conclude at 3:20, time as not available to adequately produce an acceptable edition of Council Comments. Having cruised the North Atlantic last month, resulting in an absence from the June meeting, I would like to thank Councilman Tom for filling in as your scribe...

The July edition of Council Comments will appear in next week's Beacon and we'll get back on schedule in August.

Your scribe,

Jeff Robinson
