

The Horseshoe Creek Hiking Trail is a 2.5-mile hiking trail which follows portions of Horseshoe Creek from the HSB POA Mausoleum down to Wayne's Trail near Thanksgiving Mt. and FM 2147.

The Horseshoe Creek Hiking Trail was officially opened on December 13, 2016 after a ribbon cutting ceremony which honored Wayne and Eileen Hurd and a special group of local residents whose efforts made the completion of the trail possible. The Hurd's generously donated 50 acres of land to the City of Horseshoe Bay in November 2011, and envisioned the area being a park for hikers, picnickers, and general family use. Wayne regularly hiked in the area and had cleared a short hiking trail below the Mausoleum so hikers could walk along the creek. The City honored Eileen Hurd's suggestion that the short road from Thanksgiving Mt. road to the lower trailhead be designated as "Wayne's Trail."
