

Hello Neighbors!

YOUR City Council met to celebrate the opening of the new community PICKLE BALL COURT in Martin Park behind City Hall prior to heading into council today. Due to the Beacon 'early to press' for the holidays, the actual November council report will be delayed, but here are a few 'heads up' on the agenda highlights to be discussed.

- We will welcome David Aldridge to the city team, replacing departing Assistant City Planner, Nathalie Kip.
- We will APPLAUD Assistant Fire Chief Stephanie Black for her 10 years of dedicated service and leadership to the city of HSBay.

We anticipate a full update on the HSBay Resort improvements with large visuals to allow us into the vision for an updated and expanded service resort by Ron Mitchell.

We will consider an annexation petition request for the land off Hwy 71 to serve as a new Phoenix Center Camp and therapeutic services venue. This 70+ acres will provide critical intervention for children of traumatic situations in a calm wilderness setting with equine therapy, camps, small and individual group therapy and a bridge to a new empowered life for these fragile youngsters and their family members.

We will celebrate the knowledge of it ALWAYS being a great day to live in Horseshoe Bay....and know that we have much for which to be thankful. Blessings to you all (be safe in your travels).
